Samples

Tacking stitch

Tacking is easy to make, just bring your needle with thread up and down through the fabric you are using.

Blanket stitching

Blanket is quite hard but in my own opinion it is very easy to make. just bring your needle from the top of the fabric pull it back put the thread under the needle and just pull.

chain stitching

Chain stitching is very hard because Of the way you you have to put the needle through the loop with the thread

Planning design

Work plan

- Week 1 – I started off with cutting our shapes in paper before cutting them with fabric. Ms Buckley was cutting out my background.

- Week 2 – I started to tack in thread into my background and then I used embroidery thread to stitch in the pieces into the background

Work Plan

- Week 3 – I was still tacking stitches into my background but I was nearly done.
- Week 4 – I finally finished tacking all of the embroidery thread into the pillow and my Home economics teacher helped me sew it up.

Costing

- My item cost a total of £ 19.00
- I think this good because it was not so expensive nor cheap it was just in the middle and I don't think I would regret what I bought because I kept my chosen solution simple so I wouldn't have to struggle to much on it.
- Here is the receipt for all the felt I bought.

Evaluation

- It was quite easy at the start when I started to tack the stitches in with thread but then got a bit harder with the embroidery thread because I had to put the embroidery thread through the needle and then do some blanket stitching into the background which I found it quite hard but I still did quite good in the end.
- The cost, I think it was in the middle of cheap and expensive.
